School Policy

I/We the Parents/Guardians of the above named pupil, have read the School Policy document, which includes Code of Behaviour in use in Scoil an Spioraid Naoimh. I/We agree to abide by this code and will work in co-operation with the staff to ensure that my/our child understands the Code and will abide by it.

School Payments:

I/We understand that there are costs in relation to my/our child's education in Scoil an Spioraid Naoimh. These costs relate to but are not limited to: Book rental fees, photocopying of classroom materials, provision of on-line resources, art supplies, educational and sports equipment, insurance, Databiz administration, etc. This payment will be notified to you and is payable in full before the end of September. If it is possible to resume additional activities, such as swimming or school trips, these will incur additional fees, which will be advised at the time.

Diagnostic Tests:

During your child's time in Scoil an Spioraid Naoimh he/she will undergo various standardised tests administered by the teachers. He/she may also undergo various diagnostic tests if deemed necessary by the class teacher. Standardised tests are mandatory.

Dept of Education and Skills:

I give parental consent to share ethnic or cultural background and religion with the Department of Education and Skills.

School Activities:

Your consent to your child taking part in school activities is requested. All classes may undertake a variety of different activities outside the school premises – sporting, educational, physical activity on yard, school trips. Photographs are taken of some class and school events (excluding swimming) for display purposes, which may include on our school website and in the Meath Coaster magazine.

Competitions: I give consent to allow my child to enter school competitions and for their name and date of birth to be shared with the organisers.

RSE (Relationship and Sexuality Education):

Your consent is sought for your child to participate in the RSE programme in the school, where age appropriate material is taught in an environment of Catholic morality and spirituality. Parents have the right to withdraw their child from RSE lessons, on the strict understanding that the parent(s) is (are) taking responsibility for this aspect of education. It is the responsibility of the parents to inform the school of such a decision.

In case of emergency:

As a staff we undertake certain duties such as applying plasters to wounds or applying ice-packs for minor first aid incidents, as required.

If your child has a medical emergency, you give permission for us to contact emergency services immediately and notify you of the situation as soon as possible.

Exceptions: If you wish to have your child excluded from any specific activity, or refuse consent for photographs, please send a letter into the school along with this consent form stating same.

Renewal of Consent: A consent form will be issued annually.

Please sign below: By signing this form your consent is taken as given for school activities as detailed above. Any exceptions but be notified in writing and must accompany this form. The list above is non-exhaustive.
